Religious Freedom and Anti-Discrimination Roundtable in Iraq in Partnership with Religious Freedom Institute, the Salam Al Rafidain Organization / Center of Art and Peace, Madarat Hall for Culture and Arts cordially invite you to attend the opening of the art exhibition on promoting a culture of diversity and religious pluralism and anti-discrimination in Iraq.

The exhibition will also include an open panel discussion on these topics.

FOR INQUIRIES: 00964-790-222-5050

A group of elites of fine art artists and promising young people who are interested in religious and ethnic pluralism in Iraq will participate in the exhibition.

Through drawing they will encourage dialogue and discussion about diversity and the prevention of discrimination in Iraq. The exhibition includes more than fifty paintings from different governorates, which reflect the presence and antiquity of all components and the impact of each of them on the integration of Iraq's history and present, and which confirms the importance of strengthening this integration for a better future for all Iraqis, and on the principle of equal citizenship.

The exhibition also includes the following activities:

- 1. Free dialogues between attendees, exhibition management and artwork owners
- 2. Organize a dialogue session entitled Diversity and Building Social Peace for 30-45 minutes inside the exhibition hall
- 3. Announcing the winners of the competition and distributing certificates to the participation.
